"THIS VACANCY IS AMENDED TO CHANGE THE DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES AND THE QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED."

ANNOUNCEMENT NO: E20020131A

OPEN: 06/24/02

CLOSE: 07/25/02

THIS IS A PERMANENT POSITION.

POSITION VACANT: Science Education Administrator (Program Director), AD-1701-4. Salary ranges from $78,265 to $121,967 per annum.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Science Education Administrator, AD-1701-4

LOCATION: Directorate for Education and Human Resources (EHR), Division of Educational System Reform (ESR), Arlington, VA

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All sources. This position is outside the competitive civil service. Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates currently in the competitive civil service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to the final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The National Science Foundation is seeking a qualified candidate for a position to be filled in the Directorate for Education and Human Resources (EHR), Arlington, VA. The incumbent of this position serves as Program Director for the Math and Science Partnership Program located in the Education & Human Resources Directorate. The aim of the Math and Science Partnership Program is to engage the nation's higher education institutions and other partners in K-12 reform by calling for a significant commitment by colleges and universities to improving the quality of science and math instruction in schools and to invest in the recruitment, preparation, and professional development of highly competent science and mathematic teachers. The Program Director serves as part of a team of program staff members that develop the goals, strategies, and timetables for the Program. The incumbent of this position:

- Serves as a part of a team of program staff members that develops goals, strategies, and timetables for the Math and Science Partnership (MSP). The incumbent provides expert advice and leadership in areas such as curriculum, instruction, assessment, policy, urban education, rural education, equity, governance, and partnerships with higher education.
- Identifies new program initiatives, specifies program objectives, establishes timetables and plans for program development and implementation.
- Interacts with key people from funded or perspective initiatives to plan, design, and implement educational reforms in elementary and secondary education and in higher education programs that effect elementary and secondary education.

- Designs and implements review and evaluation processes for selecting and monitoring the progress of grant awardees, ensuring equitable representation on review panels and teams and sensitivity to diversity and multi-cultural issues.
- Serves as a liaison with individuals and groups working on equity of access, curriculum, methods, assessment, and research in science and mathematics education.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: U.S. CITIZENSHIP IS REQUIRED. Applicants must have a minimum of 4 to 5 years experience with K-12 school systems or equivalent. This position requires a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in the appropriate field (e.g. science mathematics, science education and/or mathematics education), plus six or more years of research, research administration, and /or managerial experience.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period is required.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS: Final ranking is based upon job-related experience, training, education, awards, performance appraisals or letters of recommendation, and the following knowledge, skills, and abilities:

1. Knowledge of the issues related to the implementation of science and/or mathematics standards at the K-12 school levels.
2. Ability to specify program objectives for K-12 levels, identify new initiatives and establish timetables and plans for program development and implementation.
3. Ability to organize, implement, and manage a proposal-driven grant program, allocating resources to meet a large spectrum of program goals.
4. Ability to present ideas clearly and effectively both orally and in writing.
5. Skill in interacting with members of the mathematics, scientific, and education communities in order to present advocate program policies and plans.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must submit a current Performance Appraisal or letters of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: Your country of citizenship. Your social security number. Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.

Submit all application material to National Science Foundation, Division of Human Resource Management, 4201 Wilson Boulevard, Room 315, Arlington, VA 22230. Attn: Announcement Number E20020131A. In addition to the required application materials, you are asked to complete and submit the attached Applicant Survey form.
